

NSQG Women's History Month Challenge

Theresa Benson

Kamala Devi Harris is the first female vice president and the highest-ranking female official in U.S. history, as well as the first African American and first Asian American vice president. Politics aside, I am honestly honored to be alive and see history being made with every moment she is in office with the Second Gentleman by her side.

Theresa Benson-more pictures

Janice Hedberg

Amelia Earhart

I chose to honor Amelia Earhart. She was a woman who demonstrated by action what could be accomplished. Her quote "Adventure is worthwhile in itself" reminds me that we should never stop looking for the next great adventure, no matter our age.

Karen Snell

When There are Nine: Ruth
Bader Ginsburg

“When I’m sometimes asked when will there be enough [women on the Supreme Court] and I say, ‘When there are nine,’ people are shocked. But there’d been nine men, and nobody’s ever raised a question about that.”

